

Dear Nursery children,

We hope your growing project is going well. We thought you would like an update on the Troll grass seed heads we planted in Nursery.... Well here they are, as you can see some of them have longer locks than others. We hope you are taking photos of your seed heads to share with us on your return to Nursery.

Keep safe and have a happy Easter—Nursery staff.