

Geography (Fair Trade)

Please help your child with their learning by going through this fact sheet with them. They will be quizzed on this at the end of half term. We appreciate your support.

Goods brought into a country are known as imports.

The silk road ran between the continents of Asia and Europe.

The country that exports the most Brazil nuts is actually Bolivia!

A large amount of food eaten in the UK is imported because we don't have the right climate to grow it.

The UK exports whiskey, medicine, cars and computers.

This is the Fair Trade logo.

Goods sold by a country to another country are known as exports.

Fair trade is when fair prices are paid for products from developing countries.

WEMBITES

The trade of bananas hasn't always been fair because some shops made more money than the fruit pickers.

The buying, selling or exchanging of goods is known as 'trade'.

Key Vocabulary

- Brazil - A country in the continent of South America.
- Marco Polo - The name of an Italian trader, but also the name of a famous cargo ship.
- Commodities - Items that are bought and sold, like chocolate, cars or fruit.
- Goods - Things that are made or grown to be sold, like toys, clothes or food.