

History

Please help your child with their learning by going through this fact sheet with them. They will be quizzed on this at the end of half term. We appreciate your support.

The Tudor reign began in 1485 and ended in 1603.

Richard's body was identified because he had a curved spine, the bones matched Richard's age and the skeleton matched the DNA of his family.

Henry Tudor won the Battle of Bosworth and became King Henry VII.

The House of Lancaster was represented by a red rose.

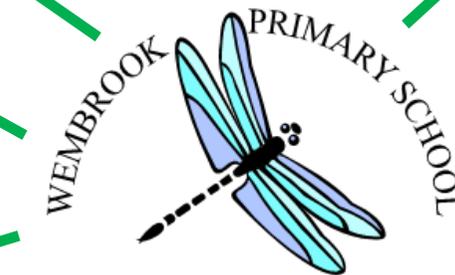

Lord Stanley supported Henry towards the end of the battle.

Richard III was king at the time of the battle.

The Battle of Bosworth was between the House of Lancaster and the House of York.

Richard III's body was found under a car park in Leicester.

An archaeologist is a scientist who finds buried history.

WEMBITES

Henry married Elizabeth of York to bring peace between the two Houses.

Key Vocabulary

- ➔ Lancastrians - Follower of the House of Lancaster supporting Henry VII.
- ➔ Yorkists - Follower of the House of York supporting Richard III.
- ➔ Monarch - A ruler such as a king, queen or emperor
- ➔ Archaeologist - A scientist who finds buried history.