Platinum Jubilee

Friday 27th May will be a special day in school, to celebrate the Queen's Platinum Jubilee,

Children will have the opportunity to attend school in red, white and blue or anything else regal to celebrate the 70 years of the queen's reign. The school has a number of activities planned for the day including a street party at lunchtime and a special art competition.

In addition, for all pupils who are in school they will receive a specially commissioned jubilee mug to mark this unique event.

The kitchen will be providing food for a street party instead of the usual standard hot dinners.

The buffet will include hot and cold finger food, such as sandwiches, pizza and filled wraps. There will be vegetarian options. Pupils can still choose to bring sandwiches.

We hope as many children will purchase this option as possible. Please refer to the Parent Mail form sent last week. The cost of the meal will be £2.25.

Last day to order meals is Tuesday 24th May 9:00am

Where in the World!

Thank you so much for all the photographs which have already been sent in- they are great.

We are looking for photos of family members, children, parents, grandparents etc. who have been fortunate enough to travel somewhere in the world.

If you are able to email the photograph in with a such caption such as "Jack Spratt's (2KH) Grandad by the pyramids Egypt 1988" that would be wonderful.

Wembooks@Wembrook

Last week we launched our annual initiative to encourage a love of reading at school and home.

Every two weeks your child will bring home a new class book, which is to be read for pleasure.

They may be instructions from the teacher to read several pages or chapters but more than likely it will just be a book to enjoy with Mum or Dad or perhaps on their own.

The children should bring the book into school everyday, as there may be work in school connected to their reading.

I am sure you will agree and appreciate that the last couple of years have been extremely difficult and as we continue the journey of catching up, reading is key to this progress.

Please support your child by actively engaging with them and the book.

Try and create some special time most nights, just ten minutes is perfect. Share the book. You can read, they can read, you can read together. Don't make it a chore, try to resist correcting too much and certainly try and make it fun.

So what you need to know:

- A new class book will come home every two weeks.
- Your child will have several books over the Summer term.
- There will be some discretion around normal reading books. It will vary on length but certainly we are not expecting double reading sessions every night.
- Some other homework will be relaxed, especially as we all try to encourage time with the books
- The books vary in price but some cost over £12. They need to be looked after and stored in a safe place. All books are numbered and if we believe that they have not been looked after appropriately then we may ask you to pay for a replacement.

We all know being a parent is the best and most frustrating job in the world but I personally would say there is no better feeling than to be cuddled up in bed together sharing a book. If it has been sometime, why don't you give it a try!
